THE STORY OF MEL'S BRACELET

It was Mel's habit and pleasure to give little gifts, like this bracelet, to people she met while receiving chemotherapy.

Shortly after Mel passed away, those who received the bracelets as gifts began wearing them in her honor. Others started asking how they could do the same. Everyone wanted a little piece of Mel.

Since 2005 thousands of the bracelets have been sold and nearly $4,000,000 raised to support cancer research and organizations, including Kay's Kamp.

Mel's bracelet has become an outward sign that continues to give hope and inspiration to all who wear it. Buy one for yourself. Give them as gifts for family and friends.
